

City MP delivers Christmas encouragement to Royal Mail posties at Newport Pagnell Delivery Office

Mark Lancaster MP has visited Royal Mail's Newport Pagnell delivery office to pass on best Christmas wishes and encouragement to the postmen and women at their busiest time of year.

Mr Lancaster was shown round the office by local Delivery Office Manager Greg Wilde and was introduced to all the postmen and women who are working hard doing their bit to sort and deliver all the cards and parcels in the Newport Pagnell area in the run-up to Christmas.

Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, said: "It was great to meet the hard-working Royal Mail postmen and women at Newport Pagnell delivery office and to see at first hand just how much effort they put into delivering for people at this time of year.

"Postmen and women do such an important job at this time of year. I like to thank them for their efforts and wish them all the best over the busy festive period."

Greg Wilde, Royal Mail Delivery Office Manager at Newport Pagnell said: "Christmas is the busiest time of year for Royal Mail. Our people really do pull out all the stops throughout the year to ensure mail is delivered quickly, but even more so over the busy festive period. We are grateful that Mark Lancaster MP came along to see the hard work that goes on behind the scenes."

Greg Wilde added: "Our people do a fantastic job at this time of year to ensure that friends and families stay in touch through their Christmas greetings and gifts. And as usual, we'd like to remind our customers to post early so that friends and family have longer to enjoy their Christmas greetings!"
