

Mark celebrates record number of apprenticeships in Milton Keynes

Mark Lancaster has today welcomed new statistics that show a record number of people in Milton Keynes started apprenticeship in 2011/12. The data also has provisional results for the number of apprenticeship starts in the first quarter of 2012/13 – in August to October 2012 650 people started apprenticeships in just three mo

In the last financial year, 2230 people started an apprenticeship in Milton Keynes, over double the number that were in existence under the last Labour government.nths.

Mark commented:

"We will only succeed as a country when everyone is given the chance to reach their full potential. We have dramatically increased the number of apprenticeships on offer across Milton Keynes compared to the last Labour Government.

"These record levels of apprenticeships are fantastic news for our country, for Milton Keynes, and most of all for the people whose lives are being transformed by the opportunities they offer."
