

Rugby World Cup - Web Ellis Trophy hits MK

Coveted by rugby players from across the globe the Web Ellis trophy reaches Milton Keynes on day 71 & 72 of its 100 day tour of the UK before arriving at Twickenham Stadium on 18 September for the opening ceremony of the 2015 Rugby World Cup.

The iconic trophy can be seen at Daytona, Xscape & Woughton on the Green on 20th August, followed by a visit to intu MK for a range of activities on the 21st August. So take the chance to get up close to this iconic trophy <http://www.rugbyworldcup.com/trophy-tour/events#!>

With less than a month to go, fans have been given more opportunities to be part of Rugby World Cup 2015 as an additional 30,000 tickets go on general sale for matches in Pools A and B via tickets.rugbyworldcup.com and since the end of July a further 25,000 tickets have gone on general sale for matches in Pools C and D.