

Girl Talk!

We saw a hard fought all-girl final in our annual Parliamentary Schools' Debate competition.

Congratulations to Shenley Brook End School who narrowly defeated Ousedale in the impressive surroundings of the House of Commons. Well done to all the schools in Milton Keynes that took part in the earlier rounds and I look forward to another year of remarkable debating performance from our young citizens.