

Young people in Milton Keynes given the Chance to be Chancellor and share their opinions on the Youth Budget 2012

Mark is supporting the launch of Chance to be Chancellor 2012 and is calling on schools and young people in Milton Keynes to take up the challenge to learn about, and share their opinions on, Budget 2012. Run by the Citizenship Foundation, in partnership with Aviva, Chance to be Chancellor is open to all 14-18 year olds across the UK.

Running until the 20th February, participants can enter into a national competition to win great prizes and visit HM Treasury in London.

To find out more and get involved visit:

www.chancetobechancellor.org.uk