

MP Goes Walkabout

Curtains may have been twitching in Oakridge Park as the team from housing association BPHA and I took a walk through the new housing development.

BPHA has hundreds of properties across Milton Keynes and their priority is to support their residents and I believe that the support they offer is of huge benefit to the community.

In our expanding community, regular engagements such as this is a proactive approach and I would encourage landlords to follow their lead elsewhere in MK.