

QPR Lead the Way

QPR FC have joined a growing number of professional football clubs to sign the Armed Forces Covenant.

I had the honour of signing as Defence Minister and they're the first London club to sign and hopefully others will follow their lead.

The club has already supported a number of veterans to get back into work with its employability programme.

https://business.facebook.com/forceswelfaremedia/?business_id=364753257049382&hc_ref=PAGES_TIMELINE&fref=nf