

All Good News at MKU Hospital

Such positive news from MKU Hospital and after a walk round with Joe Harrison, CEO and Iain Stewart MP last week, I could see for myself just why.

A purpose built new ward, a new medical training facility, a new car park to accommodate the fast paced expansion and as a consequence of all their hard work and commitment, top clinicians have been attracted to come work in MK.